DANCES FOR A VARIABLE POPULATION PRESENTS Revival 5 September
Performances: Washington Square Dances And Bronx Dances
A Live Performance Festival in September 2021: A CELEBRATION OF THE VITALITY
AND JOY OF AGE THROUGH THE LENS OF COVID and 20TH CENTURY DANCE

NEW YORK, September 2021 - Celebrating the fortitude, vitality, and joy of age in response to innovative ways learned from COVID-19, Dances For A Variable Population (DVP) will present, REVIVAL 5, performances at Washington Square Park and at Yolanda Garcia Park. REVIVAL 5 features 6 legendary dance artists and 35 non-professional senior dancers, who reflect the innovation and beauty of older age in light of the challenges of this time. Through their experience and example of shared vitality and a spirit of unity, we are reminded of the importance of community and connection in spite of the difficulties of these times. We are united with them in commemoration of those lost, in celebration of what we have discovered, and hope for what yet awaits. REVIVAL 5, connects a multi-generational dance company with choreographers in their 60s, 70s, and 80s through two live performances.. Now, as part of DVP's 12th year of free performances in iconic spaces, the world premiere of REVIVAL 5 will take place Saturday, September 11 at Washington Square Park at 6 PM, Saturday, September 25 at Yolanda Garcia Park at 4 PM, with pre-show interactive All Together Dance workshops open to the public.

For REVIVAL 5 Dances For A Variable Population welcomes choreographers Shirley Black Brown Coward (Broadway, George Faison Universal Dance Theatre), Ellen Graff (Martha Graham Company), Audrey Madison (Charles Moore Dance Theatre), Myna Majors (The WNBA N.Y. Liberty Timeless Torches), Sandra Rivera (founding member of Ballet Hispanico) and Marnie Thomas Wood (Martha Graham Company) along with artistic director of DVP Naomi Goldberg Haas and the multi-generational DVP dance company.
